General Information

Banner Good Samaritan Medical Center in downtown Phoenix has been providing care to the community since 1911, and is a flagship hospital within Banner Health. Nearly 1,700 physicians representing more than 50 specialties work with Banner Good Samaritan staff to care for more than 36,000 inpatients a year. Banner Good Samaritan houses more than 650 licensed patient care beds.

Banner Good Samaritan is a teaching hospital that trains more than 220 physicians annually and a premier medical center in Arizona and the Southwest. It provides a comprehensive foundation of major programs and an equally impressive offering of highly specialized programs not available in most hospitals. Excellent patient care is the hallmark of major programs such as the Harry J. Cavanagh Cardiology Center, Level I Trauma and cancer care, general and minimally-invasive surgery, solid organ transplantation, and high-risk obstetrics. Highly specialized services, such as Blood Conservation Medicine, Movement Disorders Clinic and the Positron Emission Tomography Center, have emerged as leading programs in the region.

Banner Good Samaritan physicians and staff rely on the cutting edge technologies in the care of their patients. Additionally, Banner Good Samaritan has become an important research center in selected areas of research such as Alzheimer's disease and spinal cord injuries. Banner Good Samaritan has been named a Magnet hospital for nursing excellence, has been cited for seven years as one of America's "Best Hospitals" by U.S. News & World Report and is recognized and preferred by consumers and physicians for quality of care and clinical leadership.

Our Mission: We exist to make a difference in people's lives through excellent patient care.
