

Banner Good Samaritan
Medical Center

Rehabilitation Institute - Outpatient Therapy Services

The Banner Good Samaritan Rehabilitation Institute offers cost-effective, goal-driven outpatient services for patients recovering from physical or cognitive injuries or illnesses including (but not limited to):

- Amputation
- Aphasia
- Cognitive Dysfunction
- Dizziness/Balance disorders
- Dysarthria/Dyspraxia of speech
- Gait deviations
- Geriatric Balance disorders
- Hand/wrist injuries/disorders
- Head injuries
- Laryngectomy/TEP
- Movement disorders
- Neurological/muscular disorders
- Orthopedic injuries/post-op
- Spinal cord injuries
- Strokes
- Stuttering
- Vocal Cord Dysfunction (VCD)
- Voice disorders
- Wound Care Program

Neuropsychology

The staff teaches compensation, modification of lifestyle and adjustment. Services include:

- Complete neuropsychological evaluations
- Cognitive retraining

Occupational Therapy

Therapists focus on functional daily living skills to improve motor, cognitive and social skills.

TOP, Patients requiring outpatient therapy for hands, legs and other physical disorders after a stroke or injury can find treatment at the Banner Good Samaritan Rehabilitation Institute. ABOVE, The “STAR” program helps seniors negotiate everyday obstacles to reduce falls.

Occupational therapy services include:

- Dynamic/static balance training for Activities of Daily Living
- Hand and upper extremity rehabilitation
- Upper extremity splinting
- Adaptive equipment training
- Client/family/caregiver training

Physical Therapy

Therapists provide mobility evaluation and training. Services include:

- Balance training
- Body mechanics instruction
- Coordination with orthotic and prosthetic specialists
- Gait/mobility training
- Partial weight-bearing for gait training
- Work conditioning
- Client/family/caregiver training

Speech/Language Pathology

Certified speech-language pathologists evaluate and treat clients to regain communication skills. Services include assessment and therapy for the following conditions:

- Aphasia
- Dysarthria/dyspraxia of speech, including Lee Silverman Voice Treatment (LSVT) therapy
- Laryngectomy/TEP
- Swallowing disorders
- Voice disorders
- Vocal cord dysfunction (VCD)
- Laryngeal Videostroboscopy
- Need for Speech Generating Device (SGD)
- Patients with cognitive communication deficits due to head injury or stroke

Special Services

Adapted Driving Program - Comprehensive driving evaluation and training that includes both clinical and behind-the-wheel assessment and recommendations.

Seating Evaluation and Prescription -

Evaluation of the client's present wheelchair or power scooter with recommendations that will improve posture, comfort, flexibility, and mobility to increase function and independence.

“STAR” Program: Seniors Taking an Active Role - A fall reduction program for high functioning geriatric clients living in the community.

Movement Disorders - Multidisciplinary evaluations for people with movement disorders or Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis.

Vestibular and Balance Therapy - For clients with vestibular disorders and/or neurological conditions that may have resulted in balance deficits or dizziness. Therapy may include balance retraining, exercises to reduce dizzy symptoms, and instruction on a variety of compensatory strategies.

For more information

The Banner Good Samaritan Rehabilitation Institute is located on the Banner Good Samaritan Medical Center campus at 1012 E. Willetta. Outpatient Therapy Services is located on the first floor of the West Wing. We schedule patients from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The Banner Good Samaritan Rehabilitation Institute is Medicare provider. To utilize services you will need:

- A prescription from your physician (have your physician's office complete our online referral form)
- Payor source

For more information or to schedule an appointment, please call (602) 239-2317 or fax (602) 239-6200.

