

Banner Wyoming Medical Center Ambulance Coloring Contest Rules

Attention Natrona County elementary students: Banner Wyoming Medical Center needs your help!

Our ambulance herd is getting a new animal friend, but we don't know which Wyoming animal to choose. Now through Sept. 30, elementary school students in Natrona County can enter for a chance to pick the next ambulance animal. The winner will be honored at a special unveiling party and have their illustration and short essay incorporated into the new ambulance design.

Full contest rules include:
